

RANDALL PURVIS

Born and raised in Edmonton, Randall had many opportunities to travel through sports and was nationally ranked in Canada and represented the Alberta Tennis Association for seven years. Through his travels he was able to make a strong network of associates across Canada. After graduation Randall settled in Duncan, BC and became an avid market farmer for 5 years. Soon after, he had the opportunity to join his family business in Edmonton at Waterloo Ford Lincoln.

Over 41 years in the automotive business in Edmonton, Alberta he worked in various positions from beginning as a lot boy to the President and CEO. Managing departments included service, parts, sales, administration, and finance. Became national chairman of Ford Dealer Council and Regional Chairman of National Ford Round Table for 2-year term and Regional chair of the National Advertising Committee of Ford of Canada for 4-year term. Passionate supporter of music in Edmonton, support and sponsor Edmonton Folk Music Festival, Blues Festival, Works Festival, Heritage Festival, Opera and Edmonton Symphony.

Founding member and Vice-Chair of the No Stone Left Alone Memorial Foundation, Members of the Society, Board Member and Chairman for the signature fund raising event, the Dance to Remember.

Randall resides in Edmonton with his wife, Maureen Bianchini Purvis. He is a proud father of two beautiful and talented daughters, Sara and Keely who are also part of the legacy of No Stone Left Alone. He is Papa to his treasured grandchildren, Elle, Petra, Beckett, and Hudson. His passions are boating, biking, gardening, golfing, and skiing where he holds the Guinness Book of World Records for the largest ski lesson in Jasper, Alberta.

In 2022, Randall was honoured with the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Award.